

Wine Grape IPM Workshop
Thun Library, Room 145
Penn State Berks Campus, Reading, PA
Polycom to Erie, Westmoreland and Susquehanna
Wednesday, March 21, 2012

(E) – broadcast from Erie

Draft Program

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| 8:30 | Registration |
| 8:45 | Introduction and comments |
| 9:00 (E) | Organic grape growing practices in the Lake Erie Region: Andy Muza, Penn State extension Erie and Tim Weigle, Cornell LERGP/NY grape IPM specialist |
| 9:45 | Understanding and managing sour rot in wine grapes: Dr. Wendy McFadden-Smith, OMAFRA and University of Guelph, Ontario |
| 10:45 | Break |
| 11:00 (E) | Management and research of fruit rot diseases in vineyards. Bryan Hed, grape pathologist, Penn State NE Grape Research Station |
| 11:45 | Managing nematodes and tomato ringspot virus in vineyards: Dr. John Halbrendt, Penn State FREC |
| 12:10 | Lunch - on your own |
| 1:30 | Grapevine yellows in Virginia: Tremain Hatch, viticulture extension associate, Virginia Tech |
| 2:15 | Management of downy mildew and powdery mildew: Dr. Noemi Halbrendt, grape pathologist, Penn State FREC |
| 3:00 | The new OMAFRA grape IPM website and other disease issues in Ontario: Wendy |
| 3:30 | Weed management in vineyards: Scott Guiser, Penn State extension Bucks |
| 4:15 | Adjourn |